2. Doslet was a flying club which was formerly known as the Aere Club. The designation Doslet became effective in either 1951 or 1952. Flying training was conducted under the supervision and instruction of Czech Air Force personnel.

light aircraft and gliders were used. Upon completion of training, members could volunteer for Air Force Flying training and if accepted, bypassed the preliminary phase of cadet training at Dolmy Kubin /4912N-1918E/, Glomouc, or Presev, and began cadet training in the third phase of regular military flying training at either Piestany /4837N-1750E/ or Zvolen /4838N-1908E/.

3. partisan training activity took place in Mnichovo Hradiste /5032N-1459E/ in 1952. The trainees were persons around 16 years old and older.

Was under the supervision of soldiers from Turnov /5035N-1510E/. Former partisans who fought against the Germans in World War II were utilized as instructors for the partisan training. The training consisted of hand to hand fighting, sabetage and solf survival techniques.
